Breach Point:

Personal & Professional Breakthroughs for Law Enforcement Personnel

In a chaotic and unpredictable world of plummeting moral standards, our nation's police officers are facing stressors that can have predictable and profoundly negative impact upon their lives, careers and families. This seminar will assist those attending in gaining a distinctly different perspective on the unique and potentially problematic consequences of performing well within a law enforcement culture. Officers, Sergeants and those who assist them will reflect upon the traumas and triumphs associated with modern law enforcement, and how these influence the pivotal balance between professional and personal relationships.

Kent Williams, an experienced law enforcement executive, educator and founder of Breach Point Consulting, will guide law enforcement personnel and their significant others in understanding a variety of best practice approaches in addressing these issues. A theme of personal leadership will run throughout this seminar as those attending will have ample chance to reflect upon the universal journey of a vocation spent in law enforcement. This seminar will provide a new set of skills designed to assist contemporary knights and their family members maintain a balanced, meaningful and rewarding lifestyle, while gaining a profound understanding of the nobility found in their servant's spirit.

Topics will include:

- Removing classic frustrations encountered by all law enforcement officers
- Understanding the impact of rewarded cynicism
- The Caustic Effects of performing well in law enforcement
- How the dynamics of control and trust can negatively influence officer attitudes both at work and home
- Learning and mastering the unique, misunderstood and potentially problematic consequences of police perspectives
- Learning from our Knightly predecessors on how to self motivate on the street, in the department and at home
- Inspiring a new generation of Knights

The Best Backup:

Family Transitions in Law Enforcement

The principles taught during this seminar have been assisting officers create a deeper more meaningful vocation in policing while developing a harmonious and rewarding personal life away from their career. Kent's work on the predictable transitional issues confronting the police officer's family has lead to numerous speaking engagements throughout the nation designed to keep the family of a police officer emotionally and spiritually healthy.

Topics will include:

- Knowledge as protective armor for the entire family
- What can we learn from Dorothy?
- Learning how to protect your family from over exposure to the "Real World"
- The stressors unique to the police officer's family
- The risks at home from slaying dragons for a living
- Warning signs of distress and preventative methods to reduce and monitor it
- Why officers are at greater risk for alcohol abuse, divorce, isolation, depression and suicide
- Mastering the misunderstood influence of police perspectives
