

Thirty-Eighth Annual Legislative Conference

Friday, February 8 and Saturday, February 9, 2019

The Legislative Conference of the Minnesota Police and Peace Officers Association will be held in Two Harbors, Minnesota, on Friday, February 8 and Saturday, February 9, 2019.
Headquarters will be the Superior Shores Resort.

The cost of the event will be $175 (or $225 with non-member guest). Registration fee also includes the Friday night hospitality room, Saturday lunch for members only and Saturday evening dinner and entertainment for member and guest.

The Friday evening reception is at 7 pm and is open to all members and guests and includes appetizers, beer and wine. Cocktails of choice are available at the member's cost.

The business session will commence at 9:00 a.m. (registration beginning at 8:30) and will end at 4:30 p.m.

The program will include discussion on topics such as:

- Legislative Issues for 2019
- Discussion on Contemporary and Controversial Topics Affecting Law Enforcement
- Informative Speakers
- Plus Much More

Your attendance and participation in this important MPPOA Legislative Conference will serve to provide you with up-to-date information on legislative issues. It also serves to direct the association as well. Please plan to attend.

All registration to attend as well as to select preferred accommodations will be done online.

An application for POST C.E. credits will be made.

SATURDAY EVENING ENTERTAINMENT

TOMMY RYMAN

Tommy Ryman grew up with a new-age, folksinging mother and a traditional, Lutheran insurance-agent father. This XY equation evidently equals: acclaimed comedian. Ryman has earned the title of Semifinalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing, where judges raved about Tommy saying, "they had never seen anything like him, one of a kind, fantastic!"

Ryman's act can be described as absurdist and clever, masked behind a very likable and innocent demeanor, often thought of as disturbingly adorable. He is a favorite among audiences at top clubs, colleges, and corporate events around the nation, and he is regularly featured on SiriusXM, and iheartradio.

Ryman recently won the title of Best in the Midwest at the prestigious Gilda's Laugh Fest, and voted best comedian in the Twin Cities by City Pages. He was invited to perform at the Great American Comedy Festival at the Johnny Carson Theater. Ryman's newest album "Having the Time of My Life" debut at 2# on the iTunes comedy charts, and he also has a brand new comedy special on Dry Bar Comedy.
